

The saxon genitive

1. Use the two sentences to make one sentence. Follow the example:

Example: Daniel has a dog. It is called Bobo. → Bobo is Daniel's dog or Daniel's dog is called Bobo.

1. Peter has two sisters. Their names are Susan and Nicky.
2. The children have two hamsters. The hamsters are behind the bookshelf.
3. Tim has two brothers. They are at university.
4. James has a girlfriend. She is from Brazil.
5. My friends have a new French teacher. She is very strict.

2. Choose the correct answer.

1. _____ are green.
a) Helen's eyes
b) The Helen's eyes
c) Helens' eyes
2. _____ is old.
a) My fathers' car
b) My father's car
c) My fathers's car
3. _____ are dirty.
a) The shoes of the girls'
b) The shoes' girls
c) The girl's shoes
4. This is _____ hamster.
a) Peter
b) Peter's
c) Peters'
5. Is this _____?
a) Melanies' house
b) Melanie's house
c) The Melanie's house
6. _____ is Pippin.
a) My cat's name
b) My cats name
c) My name's cat
7. _____ are red.
a) The trees leaves
b) The tree's leaves
c) The leaves of the trees'